★ It's Up To Them ★

As World Series moves to Cincinnati Saturday, with games tied at 1-all, this tan Red trio is ready to "welcome" the New York Yankees. Swift center-fielder Vada Pinson (left) doubled in Thursday's 6-2 victory, while Frank Robinson scored a run. Elio Chacon (inset) was hero of the day as he daringly scored the winning run on a short passed ball and performed brilliantly at 2nd base.

Rev. Jones 'Integrates' Hospital While a Patient

By CHARLES S. PRESTON

Rev. James Jones, dynamic director of the Mayor's Commission on Human Rights, carried forward his crusade for integration while a patient in Methodist Hospital this week.

Rev. Jones was released from the hospital Thursday morning after a week's stay for a check-up. His physician, Dr. Edward P. Thomas, said he was "doing very well."

Most of us, when illness sends us to a hospital, lay aside our customary concerns. But not so the young minister, who is also pastor of the People's Temple Christian Church. Friends and co-workers know that he never lays aside his concern for brotherhood.

WHEN REV. JONES entered the hospital last week, according to reports, an admissions official became confused because he was a white patient with a Negro doctor. Going through two stacks of cards, she finally asked:

"You're not colored, are you?"

"What kind of a question is that?" the minister answered. Then he emphatically declared that in view of the situation, he would not stay in a private room as ordered by his physician.

He was with difficulty prevailed on to obey his doctor's orders, and was soon visited by a supervisor who said she would reprimand the admissions officer.

"No, as an individual she was only carrying out her duties," Rev. Jones replied. "Apparently it is the policy of the hospital that is at fault."

THEN A STILL HIGHER hospital official came around. He said apologetically that this was the "last vestige" of segregation at Methodist, which has thoroughly integrated its services and staff from top to bottom.

"We still ask patients whether

Liquor Store Haul Includes Wine, Whiskey, Cigarettes

The Hoot Liquor Store, 2182 N. Illinois, was hard-hit this week by burglars who took a large quantity of liquor and cigarettes.

Walter Tague, manager of the liquor store, told police that he closed at midnight, reopened at 8 a.m., and found that someone had "cut" a hole through the wall at the south side of the store.

Upon further investigation, Tague discovered that 88 one-half pints, 25 pints, three fifths, and 18 tenths of whiskey had been taken. Also missing were more than 30 pints of Wild Irish Rose Wine, along with 86 cartons of cigarettes.

Police learned that the burglars had first broken into the J & L Barber Shop, at 2178 N. Illinois, and then came through the wall and into the liquor store.

The owner of the barber shop, James Chandler, 551 Minerva, told police that two barber jackets, a bundle of small towels, and a half bundle of large towels were taken. Total value of the supplies taken from the shop was $12.

A NUMBER of similar burglaries were also reported last

Volunteer Committee Seeks New National Baptist Convention

CINCINNATI—To redeem the Baptist initiative and restore a democratic thrust is the main objective of the Volunteer Committee for the Formation of A New National Baptist Convention, according to Rev. L. V. Booth, chairman.

"We owe the nation something better than law suits, stage fights and mob violence," Rev. Booth said. "Some of us cannot bow to what we believe to be brazenly and grossly wrong. We are fighting much too hard to gain freedom on other fronts to forfeit our rights for freedom in our National Convention."

Rev. Booth, pastor of Zion Baptists are invited to attend this week that a meeting of the new committee will be held on Nov. 14-15 at Zion Baptist Church, 630 Glenwood.

"ALL FREEDOM LOVING, independent and peace-loving Baptists are invited to attend this meeting," Rev. Booth said.

The two-day session will be devoted to discussion on "How To Build A Democratic Convention Dedicated to Christian Objectives."

Dr. William H. Borders, pastor of Wheat Street Baptist Church, Atlanta, Ga., will be the meet-

GOP Can Win Back Negro Vote, New Official Says

By R. C. FISHER, For ANP (For Associated Negro Press)

ST. LOUIS—The Republican Party has an excellent opportunity to win back the Negro vote, and is determined to recapture the support, which is necessary to win control of Congress in the next year's elections, Grant Reynolds, recently appointed general counsel to William E. Miller of the Republican National Committee, said here last week.

Reynolds, a White Plains (New York) attorney, charged that the Democratic party has become indifferent to the Negro vote and relied on it without bargaining for it. The best opportunity for advancement of the Negro, he continued, is in a good two-party system.

DESPITE the fact that 87 per cent of Negroes voted for President John F. Kennedy there are areas of disenchantment in the Democratic party in which the Republicans can build politically, he declared.

He told a press conference at the Statler Hilton Hotel that President Kennedy ignored his campaign promise to promote civil rights legislation in this session of Congress. The unprecedented appointment by the President of Negroes to high government offices is "window dressing" Negroes can see through, he asserted.

Reynolds, a graduate of Eden Theological Seminary here and the Columbia University School of Law, said the Democratic administration is talking through both

Rites Set For Dr. Gachaw, Noted Young Psychiatrist

Young Dr. Gabra Gachaw, Jr., a man with a brilliant future died suddenly Tuesday from chronic asthma. He was 31 years old. Death came at 7 p.m. in a local hospital. He had been a patient since August.

Less than two hours before his death Dr. Gachaw, a noted psychiatrist, had called his mother to tell her that he had "signed out" and was on his way home.

His mother said that shortly after Dr. Gachaw's call the doctor phoned her and announced "Dr. Gachaw is dead." She said she did not fully understand the circumstances surrounding her son's sudden and unexpected death.

Hospital officials refused to release any information concerning his death to the press without the written consent of his wife, the former Miss Leola Westbrook, whom he married eight years ago.

Dr. Gachaw's mother, Mrs. Gabra Gachaw Sr., said that early in 1956 her son began suffering from serious asthmatic attacks—a disorder of respiration, marked by labored breathing—but he continued to go to school until he finished his internship at Indiana University's Medical Center here. He had been treated in several hospitals for the condition.

GABRA GACHAW, M.D.

He entered the Air Force during the Korean war, after completing his internship, and advanced to the rank of captain. During this time, his mother said, the asthma attacks continued off and on.

Segregationist Is Head of Senate's Judiciary Comm.

WASHINGTON, D. C. (ANP)—Last week's adjournment of the Senate delayed until next year an expected fight over the nomination of Thurgood Marshall to the Second U. S. Court of Appeals.

Marshall, the chief counsel of the NAACP and one of the nation's strongest voices for racial equality, will square off with Sen. James O. Eastland (Dem., Miss.), an equally strong defender of the cause of segregation, when his name comes up for confirmation.

Eastland heads the powerful Senate Judiciary committee which gets the first shot at U. S. judicial appointments. It is public knowledge that there is no lost love between Eastland and Marshall.

Marshall, 53, has been a key leader in the legal fight for desegregation of public schools in the south. He pleaded the cases which resulted in the U. S. Supreme court's 1954 ruling that Negroes must be admitted to public schools.

BECAUSE KENNEDY sent the nomination to the Senate in the waning hours of Congress, confirmation was out of the question until next year. But White House press secretary Pierre Salinger said Kennedy would give Marshall

Shortridge Suffers Heart Attack, Dies In Government Class

An 18-year-old Shortridge High School pupil died early Thursday morning apparently of a heart attack suffered while she sat in her first-hour government class.

The student was identified as Sharon Warren, 2933 Indianapolis.

Robert J. Shultz, Shortridge principal, said that Miss Warren had stayed out of school last year while undergoing extensive heart surgery at the Indiana University Medical Center.

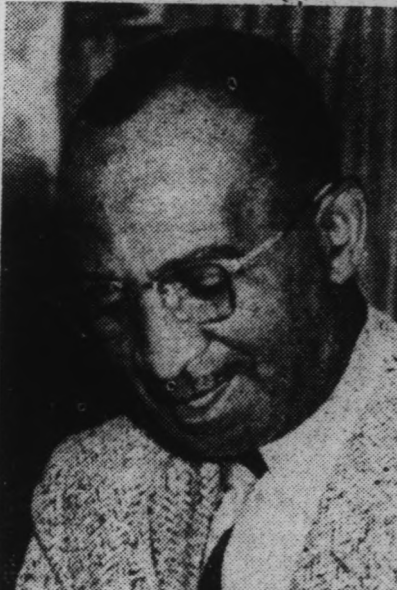

He said when she returned to school this year she was issued an elevator pass so she wouldn't have to climb the stairs to reach her classes.

Miss Warren, the principal quoted her teacher as saying, came to school Thursday morning in a very cheerful mood and didn't appear to be sick. Mr. Shultz said he was notified of the student's collapse and immediately called the police at approximately 9:45 a.m.

A student sitting next to Miss Warren in the government class said the girl was reading a book when she suddenly gasped and fell from her seat. Another student ran from the classroom to get the school nurse.

JOEL OVERSTREET

Funeral services for Joel Overstreet, 63, 1547 W. 64th, were to be held at 1 p.m. Friday at Simpson Methodist Church, with burial in Crown Hill Cemetery.

Mr. Overstreet, a meat cutter for the Kingan Division of Hygrade Food Products Corporation and its predecessors the last 34 years, died Monday in his home. Born in Hart County, Ky., Mr. Overstreet lived here 60 years. He was an Army veteran of World War I and a member of Simpson Church and its Men's Club, Bachelor Benedict Club and Mr. and Mrs. Social Club.

Survivors include the wife, Mrs. Marie Overstreet, and three brothers, James, Jesse and Terry Overstreet, all of Indianapolis.

College Student Tells Court Of Assault By Miss. Lawmen

JACKSON, Miss. (ANP)—A college student told a special three-judge court here last week that he was beaten by a Mississippi sheriff, a deputy and a group of white bystanders in the Trailways terminal at Winona (Miss.) because he refused to sit in the rear of a Trailways bus enroute home, Greenville, Miss., to Atlanta.

The Campbell College student, John Frazier, said the deputy hit him with a blackjack and the sheriff with his fists, and later jailed him on charges of disturbing the peace.

Frazier said he had ridden in the front section of two buses from Atlanta to Winona despite orders from the driver to move to the rear.

He was among three young people who testified in the second day of a suit aimed at knocking down state segregation laws, applying to travel facilities throughout Mississippi.

The suit brought by the NAACP, seeks to desegregate travel within Mississippi as well as travel across its borders.

The Interstate Commerce Commission handed down a ruling last week abolishing segregation in all interstate travel facilities.

High Court Also To Consider Tenn. Vote Complaints

WASHINGTON, D. C. — Back in session for another nine months, the Supreme Court is expected to touch on several controversial issues of special concern to Negroes.

On civil rights the Justices will possibly consider banning desegregation barriers on private premises, instead of concentrating on charges of discrimination in public facilities as in the past.

In response to complaints from Tennessee, the high court is expected to take a serious look at the "hands off" doctrine adopted in Tennessee voting district which heretofore has prevented action on outmoded apportionments of state voting districts said to result in minority rural control of a score or more of state legislatures in the Northeast, Midwest and South and to affect indirectly the political complexion of Congress.

If the move is accomplished, it is believed that it would have broader national impact than anything the court has done since its 1954 ruling on segregation in public schools.

Concerning the "sit-ins," the court will investigate the criminal convictions of a group of Louisiana "sit-ins" arrested under the state's peace disturbance law.

Speculating one official said the court might want to narrow its ruling by merely noting the "peaceful nature" of the sit-in demonstrations and throwing out the convictions for lack of evidence.

Speculation is that the Court will move carefully on sit-in and similar cases in which tough questions of racial discrimination and property rights are tightly Continued on Page 3

MESSAGE FROM MISSISSIPPI

JACKSON, Miss. (ANP)—A pro-segregation film, "The Message from Mississippi," will be shown before Columbia University's political assembly in New York City Oct. 16, according to a recent announcement sent out by the state sovereignty commission.

The film has been shown to college groups in New York, Michigan, Chicago, Connecticut and Wisconsin as well as to civic clubs in Northern states, said Commission Director Albert Jones.

"The Message from Mississippi" is part of the commission's publicity campaign to convert public opinion outside the south to segregation.

sides of its mouth in its pronouncement of equality and Attorney General Robert Kennedy's request that Negroes forego exercising their constitutional rights. Locally, he said, Mayor Raymond R. Tucker's recent appointment of Chester E. Stovall as director of welfare was in recognition of a "fine, qualified public servant"; but again this was in the tradition of Democrats to be forced to execute a Republican pledge. Reynolds' visit to St. Louis was in connection with a national survey of areas where there are concentrations of Negro voters. When the survey is completed, he will make a report to Miller of possibilities of organization in congressional districts and campaign techniques to appeal to the Negroes. "We are going to depend on changing the image of the Republican party itself to attract these people," he stated. REYNOLDS ADDED that the G.O.P. was out to capture 44 additional seats next year and give President Kennedy a Republican Congress. This would provide a "sober brake" on the President and his program, and would bring back a balance in government, he said. An army captain in World War II, Reynolds was pastor of Mount Zion Congregational Church in Cleveland for three years; president of Cleveland branch of the National Association for the Advancement of Colored People for three years and president of the White Plains N.A.A.C.P. for six years.

DISCUSS TRAFFIC PROBLEM: James C. Cummings Jr., manager of the sprawling Barrington housing development, has the unwavering attention of Traffic Inspector Audrey E. Jacobs of the Indianapolis Police Department, as he points to the hazardous intersection of Renton and Barrington Ave., one of many dangerous intersections in the growing Barrington area on the Southeast side of the city. Looking on (at right) is Arthur G. Wake, assistant traffic engineer.

Barrington Residents Thankful For Additional Police Patrol

Residents of Barrington, a 700-unit apartment development in Southeast Indianapolis, were very pleased with the prompt response shown by city officials when they were asked to help solve traffic problems in that area, the Recorder learned this week.

Traffic officials ordered additional traffic patrols, installed new stop signs, painted crosswalks, and hired an adult traffic guard to protect children enroute to and from School No. 64.

The safety improvements were the result of a combined effort of the traffic engineer's office and the traffic division of the police department.

JAMES C. CUMMINGS Jr., manager of the sprawling housing area, recently asked officials for aid after a fatal motorcycle accident occurred at the intersection of Minnesota and Mingo last month.

Cummings contended that the absence of regular police patrols, together with an inadequate number of traffic-control signs had created a hazardous traffic condition in the area.

Inspector Audrey E. Jacobs, head of the police traffic division, visited the area and, after a calculation of the conditions, assigned a special motorcycle officer to the area. He also authorized the employment of an adult traffic guard to be stationed at Minnesota at Zwingle avenue whenever children are going to or from school.

Inspector Carl Schmidt, acting chief of police, in the absence of Chief Robert Reilly, sent out a special order requesting all squads patrolling the area to cruise the streets in and around Barrington at regular intervals and to take special note of traffic violations.

MRS. ESTHER POWERS, principal of school No. 64, expressed the school's appreciation in letters written to Inspector Jacobs and Stanley Siegel, traffic engineer. Cummings and the school's PTA also wrote letters of gratitude to the officials.

Arthur G. Wake, assistant traffic engineer, directed the installation of additional stop signs on Barrington Avenue, Renton Avenue, and Rural Street.

Governor Commutes Prison Terms Of Double Murderer, Woman Slayer

Two convicted murderers from Indianapolis, serving life sentences in prison were granted clemency last week by Gov. Matthew E. Welsh.

The life term of Henry Mack Brown, sentenced in 1946 for the double slaying of his common-law wife, Hattie, and Rev. Gilbert Little, was reduced to 18 years. Police reported that Brown, then 40 years old, fatally shot Mrs. Brown and Rev. Little when he found them together in his home, located at 2054 Columbia. Brown, an auto repairman, had allegedly accused Rev. Little, an associate pastor of True Vine Baptist Church, of carrying on an illicit relationship with his wife. On the day of the shooting Brown had come home and found his wife and Rev. Little sitting on the bed, police said. When the two failed to explain satisfactorily, Brown secured a 20-gauge automatic shotgun from the kitchen and fired at the pair.

MRS. BROWN FELL mortally wounded and Rev. Little fled through a back door and fell at the rear of the house. He died enroute to the hospital.

Taken to police headquarters shortly after the slaying, Brown told officers that he had discovered his wife's affair with Rev. Little four months previously.

She denied the illicit relationship, he said, but the minister readily admitted it and gave a promise to end the affair. However, his suspicions continued, Brown said, and on September 17 he decided to set a trap. Pretending to leave the house for some auto parts he said he doubled back later and waited until he found his wife and the minister together. Mrs. Brown was the mother of five children.

The clemency action by the governor makes Brown eligible for parole in 1964.

Also granted clemency was Miss Frances Goins, serving a life term in the Indiana Woman's Prison for the 1945 slaying of her common-law husband, Edward Bason. Miss Goins, 19 years old at the time of the slaying, was facing a murder charge for the second time in less than two years. Witnesses told police Miss Goins had surprised her lover, Bason, in the home of another woman, Miss Irene Proctor, 234 Cora St.

Miss Goins reportedly grabbed a fork from the kitchen and plunged it into Bason's heart. Police later found her fleeing on North Senate Avenue.

Miss Goins, at the age of 18, was acquitted of another murder charge in July, 1943, in connection with the slaying of Charles Ladd, 18, 312 Blackford. Her attorney at the time, Henry R. Wilcox Jr., was able to convince a Criminal Court jury that she had stabbed her then common-law husband in self-defense with a butcher knife.

The governor's commutation to 15 1/2 years qualifies the woman for parole next April.

Ala. Gov. Speaks Out Against ICC 'No Bias' Order

NASHVILLE (ANP)—The Interstate Commerce Commission's recent order to desegregate bus terminals may lead to serious consequences in Alabama, Gov. John Patterson told newsmen here last week.

Patterson believes ICC's ruling, which was "politically-inspired and not based on logic or reason," may force buses to let passengers "out on the highways under the trees" in his state—Alabama.

Rural stores, which serve as bus stops in Alabama, would not comply with such an order, according to Gov. Patterson.

Patterson renewed his criticism of Atty. Gen. Robert F. Kennedy, and said that resentment in his state against Kennedy's efforts to force integration in Alabama have the people so "sore" at his brother, the President, that he couldn't possibly carry Alabama if he runs in 1964.

He had said earlier the President "couldn't get enough votes to wad a shotgun."

Henry Reed

Henry Reed, 77, died Sept. 30 in his home, 2222 Pleasant. Funeral services were held Oct. 4 in Jacobs Brothers Westside Chapel, with burial in Floral Park Cemetery.

A native of Bowling Green, Ky., Mr. Reed had been a resident of Indianapolis 58 years, and was a retired railroad car repairman and elevator operator. He was a member of Mt. Paran Baptist Church, Persian Temple No. 46 and Constantine Consistory No. 25. Survivors include his wife, Mrs. Clementine Reed.

800 Expected to Attend Leadership School of Religion

Approximately 800 church school workers, youth leaders and children are expected to attend the fall leadership School of Religion when it opens Oct. 16 at 7:30 p.m. at the Zion Evangelical and Reformed Church.

A variety of courses will be offered. Advance registration fee for this school before Oct. 10 is $1, and afterward, $1.50. Those who plan to attend may send registration fees to the Church Federation office, 1622 North Meridian.

Another school to be in session is the Observation Practice School which will be held Tuesdays and Thursdays from 9 a.m. till 11:30 a.m. beginning Oct. 24 at the following churches: Tabernacle Presbyterian, north; Downey Avenue Christian Church, east; St. John's United Church of Christ, south, and Mt. Olive Methodist, west.

Only a few can be accommodated at each school and attendance is limited to those who apply in advance. Registration is $3.

Miss Catherine Carter is director of the division of the Church Federation.

Memorial Fund Set Up to Honor Society Founder

Through the efforts of Andrew W. Ramsey, member of the Attucks faculty and editor of the "Voice from the Gallery," a weekly column in The Recorder, the Educational Aid Society transferred its funds of $1,900 to the principal of Crispus Attucks High School as the nucleus for a memorial scholarship fund for the late Mrs. Frances Berry Coston.

Mr. Alexander Moore received the presentation in a recent meeting held in the Railroadmen's Savings and Loan Association Bldg. from Mrs. Lanna Wilson, Society treasurer, in honor of the founder of the organization.

Mrs. Coston was a teacher in the public school system for more than 40 years and was also a member of the Attucks faculty. Her son, Ray Coston, and granddaughter, Miss Frances Jean Maloney, are graduates of Attucks. Mrs. Wilson is the only surviving member of the Educational Aid Society.

"But the Baptists of our age deserve a choice between tyranny and freedom. We seek to offer them freedom. We believe that Baptist blood still runs with a desire for freedom."

"We think it is far more righteous to separate in the interest of peace than to go to a convention in the fear of returning in a shroud."

"This movement is in no way connected with the past effort of the 'Taylor team'." Rev. Booth said. "No officer of the former movement is either directly or indirectly involved. It is an entirely new movement under new leadership."

"PERSONS who are concerned with redeeming the Baptist initiative and restoring a democratic thrust are invited to join us."

Both men and women are invited. Persons who are interested in attending the meeting Nov. 14-15 are urged to write in for reservations to Rev. L. V. Booth, Zion Baptist Church, 630 Glenwood, Cincinnati, and indicate whether a hotel or home is desired.

Horace McCutcheon, 948 W. 31st, told police he closed at 9:30 p.m. Sept. 27, reopened at 3:30 p.m., the next day and found that someone had broken into the establishment, and taken an undetermined amount of money from the cash register and a coke machine.

Also a number of cokes were missing from the machine, and some checks from the cash register. Entry was gained by breaking down a rear door.

WOODIE'S MARKET, 1206 W. New York, was the scene of another burglary where thieves took a cash register, $30 worth of meat, and a television set.

Woodrow Arnold, 609 W. Vermont, told police that he closed at 10:30 p.m., Sept. 27, reopened the next day and found that the lock on the front screen door and the inner door had been pried open.

ALSO ON SEPT. 28 at 8:40 a.m., police were called to the Sealtest Food Co., at 1417 N. Harding, to investigate a burglary.

Willis Flinn, 820 Westbrook, told police that he opened the establishment at 7:30 a.m. and found that someone had gained entry by breaking a glass on the eastside of the building.

Flinn also said he found a cigarette machine, from which the money had been taken, lying in the back of the building.

JOE'S SERVICE STATION, 2960 S. Meridian, was burglarized Oct. 1, and burglaries took a box of venders—for cigarettes, candy, and chewing gum—were broken into and money taken from them.

Charles Brown, 1138 S. Randolph, told police that he opened at 8:15 a.m., and discovered that burglars had broken an overhead window on the east side of the building.

THE JOHNSON Furniture Store, 736 Indiana, was the scene of a robbery where the night-watchman was bound and gagged by a knife-carrying bandit.

Police were called to the store at about 7:30 p.m., Sept. 29 where Ben Mullins, 746 Utica, told them a bandit had entered through a window on the east side of the building.

Mullins said that the bandit, carrying a knife, tied his hands with wire and carried him to a restroom. After apparently robbing the store, the man left by the same window through which he had entered. It has not been from the store. ERNEST J. PUGH, 39, an Indianapolis Transit System bus driver, told police that he was robbed at 12:15 a.m., Sept. 29, as he picked up a fare at 300 Perkins Court.

The bus driver said a colored man entered the bus, drew a .32 caliber pistol and said, "They put me up to this and I've got to do it. Don't fool around with me, boy." The bandit fled with $55 in change and small bills, plus a money changer.

MRS. BETTY LETHAM, an employee of the Boyden's Pastry Shop at 52nd and Keystone, told police that a bandit walked into the shop Sept. 30, pulled a revolver and said, "This is a holdup. Give me all your money."

She said the armed bandit took an undetermined amount of money from the cash register, put it in a bag which he was carrying, and fled from the store on foot.

A 23-YEAR-OLD woman called police Sept. 29 and told them that two men had jumped from a car and robbed her of $180.

Mrs. Mary Butts, 23, 1437 1/2 W. 23rd, said that she was walking near Senate and St. Clair when two men in a 1956 Oldsmobile jumped from the car and, after a struggle, took her purse containing the money.

POLICE, Sept. 29, followed a man to a parking lot, watched him break into a car, and then arrested him for malicious destruction of property and preburglary.

Malon Pullins, 25, 1202 W. New York, was seen leaving his house with a screwdriver sticking out of his hip pocket. Police followed him to the Indiana University Medical Center's parking lot, where they watched him break into a 1955 Dodge.

When Pullins got into the car, police rushed in and captured him. LESLEY SMITH, 45, 1303 Congress, called police Sept. 28 and reported that he had been robbed as he walked in the 1200 block on Congress.

He said that two men attacked him, knocked him to the ground, and took his billfold containing no money. He lost consciousness momentarily.

A 32-YEAR-OLD, out-of-town resident was robbed Oct. 3 at Michigan and California streets by two men who asked him for a match.

Herman Fields, 32, of Benfah Harbor, Mich., said that he was walking in the vicinity of California at about 1:30 a.m. when he met two men who asked him for a match. When he went in his pocket, the men drew knives and took $43 from him.

an interim appointment so that he could assume the $25,000-a-year judgeship promptly.

The second judicial circuit covers the states of New York, Connecticut and Vermont. Marshall, a Democrat, is a native of Baltimore, Md., who has been a resident of New York City for some years.

Kennedy also nominated seven new district judges, all Democrats, in a last-minute barrage of appointments as Congress prepared to close down for the year. These, too, Salinger said, could expect interim appointments pending Senate confirmation next year.

Marshall is the third Negro named to the federal bench by Kennedy, who previously selected nominees of that race for district judgeships in Michigan and Illinois.

Local 'Y' Head Sponsor Movement To Make Dr. Ralph Bunche UN Secy.

A movement instituted in this city recently has as its objective the furthering of the widely heralded supposition that Dr. Ralph J. Bunche should be elevated to the post of Secretary-General of the United Nations.

The local movement is being spearheaded by John James, executive secretary of the Fall Creek Parkway YMCA.

Superior Court Judge Mercer M. Mance is heading the local committee.

Mr. James, when interviewed by a newsmen from the Recorder, said anyone wishing to serve the cause in behalf of Dr. Bunche, Promotion Committee for Secretary General should contact him at the "Y."

Citizens all over the country are asked to write the United Nations, urging the naming of Dr. Bunche to the post vacated on the demise of Dr. Dag Hammarskjold.

Commenting on the proposal Mr. James said: "Our United States is the greatest country in the world notwithstanding other contentions. It is only natural that world leadership should stem from our great country. We feel that the United Nations' leadership should come from the greatest country in the world."

"The United Nations has a worthy successor to the late Dag Hammarskjold. This titular position of world leadership demands continuity of the policy of peace, acceptability by a great majority, and experience in international relations."

"We feel that Dr. Ralph Bunche, present undersecretary of the United Nations, is a logical and practical successor to the late Dr. Hammarskjold."

"The world knows very well about Dr. Bunche's record as a United Nations leader. The Palestine question (after the late Count Bernadotte's demise) was one of Dr. Bunche's cooperative and tactful leadership exhibits."

"Dr. Bunche's role in the Congo situation, still unsettled and the environment of the shocking death of Mr. Hammarskjold, is still another evidence of the cooperative leadership of Dr. Bunche. Also, Dr. Bunche has ethnic rapport with the earth's population majority. This would be strategic and tactful world leadership."

"Last but not least it might take a man of color to lead us out of this demise of a strife torn world. We recommend Dr. Ralph Bunche, a citizen of the greatest country in the world, as a worthy successor to the beloved Dr. Dag Hammarskjold."

13 Negroes Enter Memphis Schools Without Incident

MEMPHIS, Tenn.—Thirteen Negro children were admitted without trouble to first-grade classes at four previously all-white Memphis schools last week, bringing an end to this Deep South city's tradition of segregation.

The city Board of Education kept its decision to open the four schools to Negroes a secret in a calculated move to avoid disturbances.

The five Negro boys and eight girls, including twin sisters, assembled near the schools to which they were assigned and walked a block with police protection to their new classrooms.

About 40 policemen were stationed around each school, but there were no crowds, no incidents. The Negro children were safely inside before 9.

SHORTLY AFTER the Negroes arrived, three white mothers showed up at one of the schools and took six children home.

Four other white children were withdrawn from another school, and three girls were taken out of a third school.

One mother, who refused to give her name, said her family may move to another section of the city.

It was the first crack in a century of rigid segregation in Memphis public schools.

Earlier mention of the impending event by Memphis newspapers, radio and television was casual, with no date specified—at the urgent pleading of the school board.

The board argued that any publicity was likely to have dihard segregationist forces trumpeting the alarm, with turmoil a possible result.

Local Builders Present 'Place Model Homes'

SOUTH BEND — "New homes for 1962" including completely new exterior and major interior improvements were shown recently to over 200 dealer personnel of Place Homes visiting this city.

The two-day sales meeting and home show was sponsored by Place Homes, Inc. of South Bend. Representatives of the Globe Construction Corp., Indianapolis, attending the sales meeting included Charles Tedrowe and Thomas E. Lowe. Builder-dealers were in attendance from more than eight midwestern states.

The new series of homes developed from extensive homebuyer surveys will be introduced to the public this fall. According to Mr. Tedrowe of Globe Construction Corp., they emphasize more usable living space and a number of interior improvements as well as striking new designs.

Builder dealers visiting the show sales meeting were shown three new model homes in the 1962 Place Homes line. The show featured an illustrated presentation by Bruce Blietz, nationally known home merchandising expert and builder of Evanston, Ill.

Mr. Tedrowe stated that the new series of Place Home models will enable his firm to offer Indianapolis area home buyers the most complete range of three-five bedroom homes possible, plus a host of new designs and features. These will be offered at prices and on terms which represent outstanding values to home buyers.

FAC to Sponsor Summit Confab Saturday, Nov. 11

The Federation of Associated Clubs will sponsor a Summit Conference on Indianapolis Negro Leadership Saturday, Nov. 11, at the FAC Home, 2309 N. Capitol, the organization's president announced this week.

Starting W. James said the conference will cover five vital areas of community interest — housing, employment, education, political life, public accommodations — and bring together Negro leadership in the Indianapolis area for a candid and honest look at conditions as they exist today and what the hopes and aspirations are for the future.

The program is scheduled to begin early Saturday afternoon with guests taking part in at least two of the sessions. Representatives from leading organizations and groups will play key roles during the day's sessions and ample time will be given for open discussion, Mr. James said.

He continued: "It is the sincere hope of the organization and the conference that it will be able to hear and record the sentiments as expressed by the group."

Each session will feature widely known participants familiar with their field. Each session will feature its own chairman and a resource person as well as two discussion leaders.

Admission to the parley will be free. Those wishing to remain for dinner will be asked to make reservations.

Atty. Rufus Kuykendall is the general chairman.

High Court

The jurors are expected not to prefer rushing into situations which in many areas are finding solutions by "non-violent," non-judicial means—for example the peaceful desegregation of Atlanta restaurants.

Chief Justice Warren and Justices Black, Douglas and Brennan have always voted on many issues as a liberal bloc; sometimes picking up an additional vote or two to make a majority, sometimes forming a vocal minority. The four found themselves together 14 times last term—showing little hesitation in helping to shape the law to meet what these justices regard as pressing social and economic problems.

A controversial issue will concern the Federal Court entertaining suits challenging state failure to reapportion voting districts to reflect urban growth.

The court itself last term passed, on complaint by Tuskegee, Ala., Negroes that a state may not redraw boundaries of a city so as to exclude for reasons of race, citizens who formerly could vote in city elections.

Rev. Jones

they object to being placed in a room with a person of another race," the official admitted. "The theory is that this gives them peace of mind and helps their recovery."

"For instance, the other night a white woman came in who was actually hemorrhaging. She cried out that if she were placed with a Negro, she wouldn't stay in the hospital but would go home."

"Nonsense!" Rev. Jones replied. "The hospital should take a firm stand in this matter."

"People like that should be put off by themselves anyway, for they are not fit to associate with human beings."

The hospital official, who at heart was not a segregationist himself, promised the jinxer practice would be ended forthwith. A CHECK BY this writer with several sources later in the week indicated that the change had been made. Wards and rooms which had been all-Negro at the beginning of the week were made interracial by the assignment of white patients.

Many of the hospital personnel, both Negro and white, visited Rev. Jones, who was reported as making his bed every day and even going around to make the beds of other patients. (As a youth he worked in a hospital at Richmond, and he operates two nursing homes.)

All this, despite the fact he was in considerable discomfort when visited by this writer on two occasions.

"I want to make one thing clear," Rev. Jones said to The Recorder on leaving. "I have received most excellent care by everyone at Methodist Hospital. In fact, I never even had to ring my bell."

THIEF TURNS "PALE" WHEN IMPALED ON A FENCE!

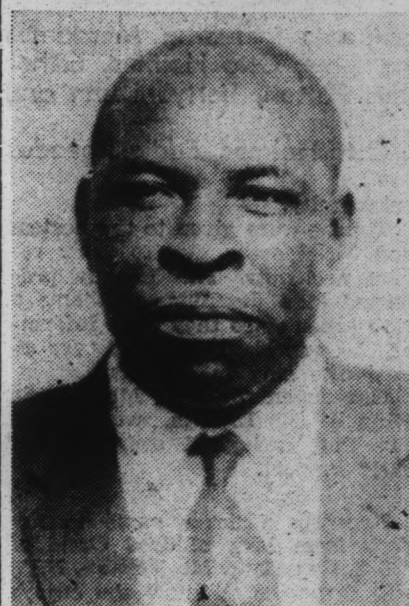

MILAN, Italy (ANP)—Many persons are seriously injured when impaled on a steel or iron fence and suffer agonizing pain until saved by rescuers. But the worst that happened to Pasquale Virgilio, 18, last week was to be jailed for robbing a clothing store.

In his haste to escape, Pasquale tried to hurdle an iron fence and became impaled on its sharp points. Answering his frantic call for help, police released him and found he had on—TWO SWEATERS, A WOOLEN SUIT, AN ANTELOPE SKIN-LINED JACKET AND FOUR RAINCOATS!

Local Baptist Church Plans Prime Crusade

REV. B. SHORT

An evangelistic campaign for the purpose of curbing crime and violence on the heavily Negro-populated Northside will be held at Zion Baptist Church, 1906 N. College, Sunday, Oct. 15.

The campaign is scheduled through Oct. 29. All meetings are slated to start at 7:15 p. m.

The pastor of the church, Rev. R. W. Beverly, said that his church will conduct the campaign against "undesirable and unwholesome" conditions prevailing in the area of the church.

Rev. Beverly also said that police are kept busy trying to keep violence down at nearby taverns, where both men and women congregate.

"Police feel that the case is a helpless or hopeless one, but we have been praying and preaching that God may have a chance to intervene. his is the reason we are opening this campaign."

Rev. B. Short, whom Rev. Beverly termed a "great evangelist preacher," has been engaged to conduct the 15-day meeting. Rev. Short, a 13-year veteran in his field, has preached as an evangelist in 28 states and pastored in five.

His audiences have ranged up to 5,000. He was born in Shaw, Miss., and is a family man.

Rev. Beverly asserted, "We believe this campaign will be helpful to the whole community's need. We are calling upon the religious interests of the city to give us their support — religiously, morally, and financially."

On Oct. 13, a turkey dinner will be served from 7:30 to 8 p. m., without charge. A container will be placed for free will offerings.

DARLINGTON, England—(ANP)—In a local magistrate's court last week, Corporal Richard Swann was convicted of drunk driving and banned from driving for two years, after his auto struck another car and smashed through a window.

Voice of the Eastside

By MARY P. McGUIRE

A beautiful "Punch Festival" was enjoyed Sunday at the Fall Creek Parkway YMCA sponsored by the City Usher Board Union of which my scribe was first woman president.

Mrs. Jewell Lillard made a charming mistress-of-ceremonies as she introduced participants including Mesdames Mary Johnson, Lorene Guy, Edna Sims, Otto Holmes, Esther Flonnoy, Mary Ann Henry, Gladys Patton, Bettye Dunn and our scribe.

Also Messrs. Peter Ovelton, Otto Holmes, Eddie Rheadus and Bennett Haynes.

Without a doubt the most beautiful table selected by the judges, Mrs. Eddy L. Dye, Dr. LaForest D. Gardner and Mr. Clifton was one prepared by Greater St. Luke Missionary Baptist, an eastside church.

Centering the table was a large white layered cake with white icing on which was trimmed in gold letters: "Greater St. Luke Missionary Baptist Church." It was baked by Mrs. Gertrude Davis.

Prizes were also awarded to the following churches: Simpson Methodist, Christ Missionary, True Vine Baptist, Allen Chapel and the membership committee's table.

I was glad the prizes had been awarded before Mesdames Viola Mills, Grace Sherron and I entered because there were so many beautiful ones decorated in fall colors.

Closing remarks were made by John James, executive secretary of the YMCA and Harold Hodges, membership chairman. Mrs. Juanita Craig, chairman, and Mrs. Joella Thompson played a large part in this occasion. Rev. A. M. Hughes is pastor of the sponsoring group.

Monday night more than 20 persons gathered at the home of Mrs. Cora Wilson for the opening session of the Eastside Better Business and Civic League.

Reports were made by Mrs. Haldee Wilson, gleaners; Mrs. Hazel Jenkins, treasurer; Howard Kennel, sinking fund treasurer and your scribe, project treasurer.

Reports showed the League's capital was nearly $1100. Rev. John Baker, Chandler Houston, James Horton, Mesdames Ethel Merker, Nina Thomas and Annie Mae Horton gave remarks. Mrs. Nelson of Douglas Park Center spoke on problems confronting the Eastside

Recently a letter came to my desk from Mrs. Mildred Orrid of 403 S. Columbus, Mt. Vernon, N.Y., who wants us to know she enjoys reading "The Voice of the Eastside" and feels that the column is very informative to out-of-town persons who have once lived here.

Mrs. Orrid compliments The Recorder for a great accomplishment in its making. She is a former Eastside teacher who states she "misses teaching so much," since she is now a probation officer in the children's court in the Bronx, working with girls 12 to 16 years of age.

She closed in asking "God's blessings on The Recorder and staff." Drop her a card. She also sent greetings to Dr. and Mrs. E. Brown.

Speaking of a minister's wife, reminds me of my own pastor's wife, Mrs. Ruth L. Davis, who has returned home, 1140 W. 32nd, from Methodist Hospital.

Cards and phone calls will be appreciated. Mrs. Davis has been greatly missed by members of New Bethel Baptist Church as our organist and a very fine minister's wife.

Now it's time to crack my own whip. I trust you will not let me down Tuesday, Oct. 10, at the United Nations Formal Dinner in Fellowship Hall of New Bethel Baptist Church.

The affair, which begins at 8:15 p.m., is expected to attract city top flight business and professional people.

In order not to miss seeing you, I have placed "myself" on the door. Already many have responded to invitations and ticket sellers. If you would like to purchase a ticket call me.

Mrs. Nettie Scott King, program chairman, and Mrs. Esther Lynch, missionary president, have left no stone unturned to make this a grand affair. Dr. F. Benjamin Davis, our pastor, is looking for all churchmen, regardless of profession... 300 are expected.

Bishop Willie Lee, pastor of Christ Temple Apostolic Church, will speak for anniversary services at Corinthian Baptist Church. Sponsoring the event is the senior (Continued on Page 8)

Women of Bethel Raise Over $4,000

'QUEEN' CROWNED: Mrs. Mary Etta Morrison (center) was crowned "Miss Bethel" in a recent contest sponsored at Bethel A.M.E. Church. Other charming contestants were (from left to right) Mrs. Mary Gentry, Mrs. Margaret E. Smith, Mrs. Lillian Stearns, second place winner and "Miss Bethel" of 1960-61; "Miss Bethel" of 1961-62; Miss Tamar Gooch, third place winner; Mrs. Vivian Marbury and Mrs. Bertha Howard. Not pictured are Miss Esther Lee Springfield, a contestant and co-owner of Three Sisters Nursing Home; Mrs. Hazel Woolridge who served as chairman of the affair and Mrs. Lucille Davis, co-chairman.

Two years ago, as an added incentive for the observance of Women's Day for Bethel A.M.E. Church, Mrs. Hazel Woolridge, the General Chairman suggested the idea that the contestants of Women's Day vie for the honor of being "Miss Bethel".
"Miss Bethel" of 1960-61
Last year, Mrs. Lillian Stearns won the coveted honor by reporting the largest amount of money. She is an outstanding member of Bethel, a Class Leader, President of the Altar Guild, and a member of the Lay Organization.
"Miss Bethel" of 1961-1962
Mrs. Mary Etta Morrison, winner of the "Miss Bethel" Contest for the Conference year 1961-62 won the title over seven other contenders. She and her captains composed "Team C". Their goal was set at $1,000. They won the title "Miss Bethel" for their contestant with an amazing $905.56, but since then have passed the $1,000 mark.
The contest was a part of the Annual Women's Day Effort, Sunday, September 17, 1961, at Bethel A.M.E. Church. The winner had to bring in the largest amount of money over $300.00. Mrs. Morrison was crowned in a Special Coronation Ceremony at the Afternoon Program. As "Miss Bethel", she will receive recognition on special occasions throughout the Conference year.
Mrs. Morrison's interests are broad and varied. Her hobbies are fabric painting, music and cooking. She serves her church as Minister of Music and Director of the well known Chancel Choir. A member of Bethel twenty-two years, she has served as Organist, Director of the Senior Choir and the Girls' Ensemble. She is a member of the Indianapolis Choir Directors' Association, the National Sorority of Phi Delta Kappa and other professional organizations.
A product of the Indianapolis Public Schools, Mrs. Morrison holds a Master's degree from Butler University. She has studied at the Arthur Jordan Conservatory of Music and Columbia University. She teaches music at School No. 36, where she is a critic teacher.

Science Shrinks Piles New Way Without Surgery Stops Itch—Relieves Pain

New York, N. Y. (Special) — For the first time science has found a new healing substance with the astonishing ability to shrink hemorrhoids, stop itching, and relieve pain — without surgery.

In one hemorrhoid case after another, "very striking improvement" was reported and verified by a doctor's observations. Pain was relieved promptly. And, while gently relieving pain, actual reduction or retraction (shrinking) took place. And most amazing of all — this improvement was maintained in cases where a doctor's observations were continued over a period of many months! In fact, results were so thorough that sufferers were able to make such astonishing statements as "Piles have ceased to be a problem!" And among these sufferers were a very wide variety of hemorrhoid conditions, some of 10 to 20 years' standing.

All this, without the use of narcotics, anesthetics or astringents of any kind. The secret is a new healing substance (Bio-Dyne) — the discovery of a world-famous research institution. Already, Bio-Dyne is in wide use for healing injured tissue on all parts of the body. This new healing substance is offered in suppository or ointment form called Preparation H®. Ask for individually sealed convenient Preparation H Suppositories or Preparation H Ointment with special applicator. Preparation H is sold at all drug counters.

By FLSA JACKSON

The more than 100 persons present for the homecoming and travelogue last Friday night thoroughly enjoyed the affair. There was plenty of good food and the program was exceptional.

Mrs. Ethel Ryan gave the welcome address, Mrs. Florence Scott, the response and Leonard Glover, principal of School 36, the main address.

Speaking briefly on the three 1961 tours were Mesdames Margaret Reid and this columnist, New York; Lorene Genus and Bessie James, Colorado, and Birdie Jasper and Mr. Thomas Wolverton, Niagara Falls.

Chester Little, FAC vice-president, stated the main purpose of the gathering. He asked the full cooperation of all members of the organization.

Beautiful moving pictures in color were shown by John Young. As the program was rather full, Mr. Young's pictures were the only ones shown. Others will be shown at a later date.

A number of persons expressed a desire to make the 1962 trip. All commented on traveling the FAC Way—The Worry Free Way.

One of the largest "Go To Church Sunday" groups filled the sections Sunday reserved for FAC by Rev. H. L. Burton, pastor of Phillip Temple CME Church. At the request of the pastor, Starling W. James, FAC president, spoke briefly.

Mrs. Willora Morris, chairman, and others of FAC expressed appreciation to all clubs, organizations and individuals who made cash donations.

An unusually large attendance is expected at next Monday night's regular monthly meeting. William Bobo, Mrs. Mary K. Lewis and myself will be in charge of a program.

We feel it will be the best of the special programs. Invitations have been mailed.

The membership committee is asking everyone to be prepared to pay their organization's dues at the meeting.

The educational committee had a special get-together at the club Thursday, Oct. 5. Robert Conley was chairman.

The 500 Festival float committee will meet Oct. 15. To date there are 25 members. Other leaders of our group interested in participating in the festival are asked to be present.

Officers of the group are Mr. James, president; W. T. Ray, first vice-president; Mrs. Elizabeth Williams, second vice-president; Atty. Willard Ransom, secretary; Dr. Lehman Adams, assistant secretary, and Marion Stuart, treasurer.

The 24th anniversary of the founding of FAC Nov. 11 is the date chosen for a Negro Summit Conference. Atty. Rufus Kuykendall is general chairman, and principal speaker.

Invitations are being sent to Negro leaders asking their participation. The public is invited to attend.

All affiliated groups are asked to make donations to the "Clear the Mortgage Fund." Names of donors will be placed on a plaque at the end of the year.

Mrs. Hattie Davis is in Wichita, Kansas.

Pride of the West No. 45, OES Matron's tea will be held in the Masonic Hall Sunday, Oct. 8. A grand program is planned.

Members of the Chant Ares and Chapellers of Bethel A.M.E. Church, Plainfield, want Indianapolis friends to be reminded that next Sunday is the day for their "Fall Festival of Sermons" in song.

The groups will be at Friends Church, Main and East streets at 4:30 p.m.

The Ky-Powella Club met at the residence of Mr. and Mrs. Hollowell, 3506 Orchard. Three new members were accepted. The meeting was held on the Hollowells' patio and in the yard among the beautiful flowers. The host and hostess served a tempting repast.

best We now, can give our honest "Well Done." A few have tried to get his job, A few would have hired him away, But the answer was always the same "Looks like Alonzo came to stay." ## United Fund Needs

The Indianapolis United Fund campaign for 1961 got under way on Monday of this week with a goal of $4,277,286 for Greater Indianapolis to support 74 "People Helper" services. Some 650 volunteer leaders participated at the kick-off ceremonies early this week. The goal this year will be met, and oversubscribed, if the spirit of benevolence of residents of our "no mean city of homes" compares favorably with the effort and spirit of the workers in the campaign.

With a bearing on the latter observation, Louis B. Seltzer, editor of The Cleveland Press, observed at the kick-off dinner-meet that "compassion for others" and "bringing light into shadows" animates our United Fund.

The numerous social agencies and organizations supported by the United Fund challenge, eventually, the charitable enterprise or benevolent spirit of all citizens of civic pride or humanitarian spirit.

Moreover, the budgets or functions and operations of these, numerous agencies and organizations, are examined carefully by a United Fund budget committee, in keeping with grants of financial support.

Organizations attracting the attention of immediate constituents or readers of The Recorder which are supported by the United Fund, among others, include:

The Alpha Home Assn., Inc., Association for Merit Employment, Boys' Club Assn., Boy Scouts of America, Camp Fire Girls, Children's Bureau of Indianapolis, Inc., Crossroads Rehabilitation Center, Family Service Assn., Flanner House, Goodwill Industries, Indiana Health Foundation, Legal Aid Society, Mental Health Assn., Salvation Army, Inc., Service Men's Center, Inc., Visiting Nurse Assn., Volunteers of America, YMCA and YWCA.

It follows that the United Fund is an organization of "People Helpers" supporting any organizations or institutions befitting its program and budget, or in keeping with its expendable resources.

Therefore, it is in keeping with the charitable interests or enterprise of our community and the spirit of civic pride that the United Fund functions.

The hundreds of unpaid workers in all walks of life who will in solicit funds for the benevolent and humanitarian services of the United Fund, or agencies which it serves, are to be saluted.

The success of the drive, any year or this year, again is dependent upon the goodwill and benevolent spirit of "People Helpers." The residents of "our no mean city of homes" have achieved a really commendable record over the years in supporting, since its inception, the Community Fund or its worthy successor the United Fund.

The record should be sustained and every effort made to enhance it. A follow up or follow through is a compliment befitting traditions of civic pride in our community.

Equal Chances to Learn, Where Shall We Stand?

The U. S. Civil Rights Commission in a recent 185-page report to President Kennedy and the U. S. Congress emphasized that school segregation is a national as well as a Southern problem.

The Commission, in the second of a scheduled five-volume report, unanimously recommended federal legislation to implement the U. S. Supreme Court's ruling on school desegregation.

Only 775 of the South's 2,837 school districts had taken even token steps towards desegregation seven years after the Supreme Court's ruling desegregation, the Commission noted.

Moreover some instituted plans have been devised to keep "at a minimum the number of Negro pupils in attendance at formerly all-white schools."

Among other recommendations, the Commission suggested legislation providing federal financial aid and technical assistance to school systems undertaking desegregation and a speedup of federal court procedure in school cases.

Again it charged that "gerrymandering" of school districts in Northern states has resulted in schools attended by students of only one racial group. Strikingly the Commission proposed that it be authorized, in keeping with proposed federal legislation, to set up advisory and conciliation service for local communities facing desegregation problems.

During the third or fourth decade of the century leaders in the ranks of organized labor proposed, or contended that intelligent and purposeful participation in our democratic society required public responsibility for education — a school system open to all.

Further they proposed that education for all was the keystone in our society, one on which all youth might rise in any or all phases of purposeful life, and not be necessarily restricted to the status of the individual's parents, as was the case in the old world.

As a result of the "spirit" of free public (education) schools, a provocative level of effective citizenship has been reflected throughout our land. Yet the promises of our free educational system have always been greater than its performances.

This has been conclusively clear to Negro people over the entire width and breadth of our land. And today they still suffer from the result of schools which are obviously inferior. Also in many areas of the country they have been denied admission to the best secondary schools, or poor secondary schools as well because of their racial background.

Moreover discrimination also takes another provocative form in that a high proportion of the ablest children of low-income groups of every area of the country are denied the opportunity to go to college, primarily because of their economic status.

For the latter reason and without regards to race, creed, or national origin there is discrimination in our free public educational system. This portrays in our times, or the past, an undue loss of potentially effective citizenship in contemplating tangible and intangible human resources.

In speculations on compelling intellectual and technological advancement of the physically vigorous and primitive peoples over the other side of the earth — we face a great challenge, if we believe in education as a keystone for perpetuating the power and glory of our way of life. Therefore we can ill-afford to repress practical evolution of education for effective citizenship of our youth without regards to economic status, or race, creed or national origin.

Negro Press Creed the United States of America can best lead the world away from racial and national antagonism when it accords every man, regardless of race, color or creed, his human and legal rights. Hating no man, fearing no man, the Negro Press strives to help every man in the firm belief that all are hurt so long as any one is held back.

The Goal Of Growing

REV. J. T. HIGHBAUGH, Editor

(LARGER LESSON: Phil. 3:11, 28-30. LESSON PRINT: Phil. 3:18-17. MOTTO TEXT: Phil. 2:14. TIME: 64 A.D. PLACE: Rome). It is a marvelous experience for a man to be able to write a letter like the book of Philippians out of which it was written. Only a peculiar circumstance of which it was written. Only a miracle man could do it. Paul, a prisoner of his belief in Christ chained daily to a Roman guard, could say rejoice ever more. This man has an indomitable faith.

So this lesson tells the secret of his growth in these approaches:

I. A Christian Grows In Evaluation. Phil. 3:8. I. A Christian Grows In Character. Phil. 3:9. III. A Christian Identifies Himself With A Church. Phil. 3:10-11. IV. A Christian Becomes A Living Example. Phil. 3:15-17.

A CHRISTIAN GROWS IN EVALUATION. Paul, like the merchant man seeking goodly pearls, sold all he had and held fast to Christ. As Jesus told the rich, young ruler to sell all he had and follow Him.

He renounced all of his rating with Gamaleel, his prestige with the Sanhedrin at Jerusalem, his blood ties with the tribe of Benjamin that he might possess Christ. Even his success as a preacher of Christ was renounced that he might simply be counted as belonging to Christ and Christ to Him.

Now this was not something that he did only once in life either. It was a day to day evaluation. Each day we are challenged to decide "What then shall we do with Jesus?" And we must count wealth, education, position, race and nationality all as mere waste compared to Christ.

A CHRISTIAN GROWS IN CHARACTER. You've heard the story of Nathaniel Hawthorne's "The Great Stone Face" and how the citizens kept viewing the character and lines in that slab of granite until the citizens became like it. Well, that is exactly what Christ will become to us who look in His face.

John dreamed of such growing likeness. One cannot his Bible, pray in Jesus' name and look for His return without growing like Him. This question of character is the challenge of 1961. Some way we must get across the more clear picture of what Christ is or we must abdicate and reflect on our King. We must want to be more and more like Jesus or cease to own Him at all.

A CHRISTIAN IDENTIFIES HIMSELF WITH THE CHURCH.

Every day we experience something of the death of the Lord Jesus so that we may know the life of Jesus in our mortal bodies. The outward man does suffer wear and tear but every day the inward man receives fresh strength. This kind of outlook on life is the very victory of the church. Paul counted it as a treasure. Look how it worked in his life. We are handicapped on every side but we are not frustrated, we are puzzled but never in despair, we are persecuted but we never have to stand it alone. We may be knocked down but we are never knocked out.

A CHRISTIAN KEEPS PRESSING ON. This is the positive life. "No. I have not arrived yet, I have much to learn," says Paul. "But like a runner in a race I keep my eyes front, forgetting my successes and many of my failures. I press on."

My daddy once told me that one of the great attentions of youth was to keep eyes front an never look back at either your successes or failures.

A CHRISTIAN BECOMES A LIVING EXAMPLE. Once these things are achieved in one's life he becomes not one who dwells alone but an example to those around him. Unknown even to himself he becomes a man who towers in his church and on his job. Men look up to him, little children call him blessed.

Negroes Equal To Whites In IQ, Experts Say

NEW YORK (ANP)—Is the Negro inferior to the white man in basic intellect? A group of noted psychologists meeting here last week said there is "no direct evidence that supports the view that there is an innate difference between members of different racial groups."

The statement was issued by the Society for the Psychological Study of Social Issues (SPSSI), a division of the American Psychological Association, in reply to an article published by Professor Henry Garrett of the University of Virginia.

GARRETT CONCLUDES, on the basis of recent study, "that there is an innate difference, that the Negro is inferior to the white."

Dr. Isidor Chein, SPSSI president, said his group believed that any differences which might be found to exist between the two races' intellectual capacities are due to outside forces and will vanish with the attainment of social equality by the Negro.

"The evidence, I think, is overwhelmingly against the theory of innate racial inequality," Dr. Chein concluded. Dr. Chein's conclusion is based on extended studies conducted on Negro and white children in New York City.

Dr. Chein is a member of New York University Research Center for Human Relations.

VOICE FROM THE GALLERY

It Happened In 1976

By Andrew W. Ramsey

The white people of Indianapolis and Marion County were having a last rally before the primary elections. The speaker for the occasion was the Hon. H. Duff Fenton, ex-mayor of Philadelphia. He was to tell the combined Democratic and Republican group how it happened in the City of Brotherly Love.

It had been a shock to the white supremacists and "moderates" of the entire nation when America's fourth city became the first metropolis in the country to elect a Negro mayor.

It is true that back in the late Fifties the then mayor of Philadelphia had attempted to lure the whites back into the city from their "restricted" suburban subdivisions.

HE HAD TRIED to tempt them by having built sumptuous tower apartments near their working places, but, while the apartment buildings had been built and filled, political pressure from the growing Negro population of the city had caused the units to be opened to all on a "first come, first served" basis and many whites refused to live in the same building with Negroes, much to the relief of the house-hungry Negro population. The buildings were filled now with almost 80 percent of the occupants being Negro.

The concentration of Negroes in the central city in Philadelphia, Pittsburgh and other Pennsylvania cities had precipitated a crisis in the political structure of the state, five of whose representatives in the United States Congress were now Negroes.

The good mayor, or rather ex-mayor, was traveling about the country on the payroll of the "Keep America White Society." He had already visited such critical areas as Chicago, Los Angeles, San Francisco, co, Detroit, Washington and Atlanta; in fact, all cities which had either Negro mayors or representatives in Congress or both. Now it was Indianapolis' turn. He would have come before the last mayoralty election, but little did the white inhabitants of the city dream that John Newhouse, the Negro who had filed for the office of mayor in the Democratic primary would get the nomination and even less did they dream that he would defeat Josiah T. Fletcher, the Republican vote-getter in the November election of that year.

It was not that Newhouse who was a graduate of the University of Chicago and the University of Notre Dame Law School, was not qualified to be mayor nor that he was not attempting to do a very good job. It was rather the fact that being mayor was something that a Negro should not aspire to.

ALL THAT STUFF about all men being created equal was fine for export and for 4th of July speeches, but in everyday life it was strictly for the birds.

In his prepared statement issued to the press during a luncheon in his honor at the fabulous Lily-white club on the Circle, the man from Philadelphia repeated his famous warning: "Give them an inch and they will take a mile."

The publisher of two-thirds of the city's newspapers had ordered the warning carried in flag headlines in both of his papers and each paper carried a front page editorial exhorting the good citizens to close ranks and vote in the same primary for Donald "Duck" Roberts, the candidate who had fired the imaginations of red-blooded (and fair-skinned) Americans as no Hoosier since the state's leading conservative left the Senate a decade and a half ago.

Roberts was running for Congress with the blessing of the society represented by ex-Mayor H. Duff Fenton and the leading white Republicans and Democrats.

The speaker warned that Indianapolis must not add to the number of Negro Congressmen. There were far too many there now—33, not counting the dark-skinned fellow from Hawaii.

OF COURSE it was true that the whites had largely abandoned the city to the increasing Negro population and half moved into the suburbs of Marion County. But, when a few Negroes were able to get within a stone's throw of them they retreated to bordering counties, selling their subdivisions which already were showing signs of becoming slums, to Negroes who wanted some of the good life reportedly existing in suburbia.

The result was that in the inner city 55 percent of the population was Negro and in Marion County it was close to 50 per cent.

But all was not lost for the cause of white supremacy. In spite of laws and courts decrees, most of the schools of the city and of the county were as segregated as ever. And all of the white churches in the inner city had either moved to the suburbs or had merely folded leaving buildings to be razed for parking lots or to be sold to Negro church groups.

THE SUBURBAN churches were the last bastions of white supremacy and had, with few exceptions, been successful in keeping Negroes out while practicing religion on a finer plane.

The strange thing about it was that few of the suburban Negroes tried to attend the white churches and it was reported that they no longer went to the Negro churches in the inner city.

THEY SEEMED TO FEEL that they could practice the same kind of religion as the white suburbanites without setting foot in a church.

The confused audience left the meeting wondering whether, if they were able to hold the line in 1976, they could do the same in 1978. They had held the line in housing, religion, education, and to a large extent employment, but politics was something else. How to segregate the ballot—that was the question.

Letters to the Editor...

Preachers Will Have to Do More Assails Police on Preaching As New Frontier Is Born Growing List of Unsolved Crimes

To The Editor:

A good many colored people were evicted from the farms in Tennessee and had to set up tents on vacant lots where their children had to dig trenches around the tents to keep the water out. They had to sleep on the ground because they stood up for their rights. They were destitute.

Mrs. Audley Moore, president of the Ethiopian Women Association, got busy in New York and gathered food and clothing, loaded it on a truck, and started out to help the poor people in Tennessee and New Orleans where hundreds of children were dropped from the welfare rolls.

THE DEVIL got into some of the white men and they fired bullets at the truck but God was there and saved the people from death. The truck was wrecked.

A leader must think of pain, blood, prison and death. God is not sleeping. Sowing is all all right but reaping time will come.

The sit-ins are getting tired of the one-sided leadership. This is a new day. A new frontier has opened for the young people and what the older heads were satisfied with will not suit the younger ones. The masses have been looking to the pulpit for help and information. But they are getting restless. They know that great caravans went to the White House, gathered around the statue of Lincoln, and sang and prayed and got no result. They have decided to try something else.

OU PREACHERS will have to do more than preaching regardless of race, color or religion. We hear a great deal about Negro History Week and brotherhood, but the scenes are changing, although the Statue of Liberty still stands in the harbor of New York with the blazing torch in her hand symbolizing that the American way of life is a Democratic way.

I have been listening carefully to see if our people here ever would call a meeting and start a rally for the tent people or gather up some clothes to send them.

I would call such a meeting good religion. And I believe that every Negro Christian would answer the call. It's not too late.

Rev. George Tate

To The Editor:

As times goes by it seems as though we are having a crime wave of house burglaries. No one sees the thieves who are doing these daytime burglaries, and also the police, who you don't see unless someone is buying a baseball ticket. May I ask what we homeowners are paying such high taxes for? Have you asked the Chief of Police how many unsolved burglaries they have and what happens to our big police force which we cannot see. Where are they?

Mr. Phillip Bayl was so right to say he is going to find out what the police do on their eight-hour job. Come voting time I think we will need a new Chief of Police.

In your paper I wish you would warn each and everyone to be on the lookout for these dope addicts and thieves who are going to kill someone sometime or get killed themselves. D. F. Johnson

City Fortunate to Have Rev. Jones, Says Lebanon Teacher

To The Editor: Often times we refer to officials in government as "Public Servants" and I heard this week, from a nurse friend at Methodist Hospital, of an Indianapolis official who genuinely deserves such a title.

The friend said that Rev. James Jones, minister of People's Temple and executive director of the Mayor's Human Rights Commission, was the most cooperative patient she has ever known; and that although ill himself, he consistently made his own bed and assisted his fellow patients whenever they were in need.

He never asked for anything, she stated, and he always had an encouraging, friendly word for everyone. Being a professional nurse myself, I can attest that this type of patient is often the exception, instead of the rule.

It seems to me that Indianapolis is fortunate indeed to have a person of such temperament and compassion to serve in the sensitive area of race relations. Virginia R. Addison, instructor of special education, Lebanon Junior High School, Lebanon.

11 Tan Warriors Share 'Good Start'

By CHARLES S. PRESTON

The Indianapolis Warriors battered down all opposition, including the Weather Man and the Louisville Raiders, to give minor league professional football a rousing sendoff here Saturday.

Both teams were integrated real strong, on a scale befitting the '60s. According to our count there were 11 colored players (10 Negroes and one Hawaiian) with the Warriors and 10 with the Raiders. Since the squads are limited to 30 men, that means a good third of the performers were non-white.

For this reason if none other, we urge all our readers who like football to take the Warriors to their hearts, as the fans in the stands appeared to Saturday. The next home game will be Saturday, Oct. 14, against Akron at Victory Field at 8 p.m.

This Saturday, Oct. 7, Coach Gene Gedman's stout-hearted men will play at Columbus, Ohio. There are other reasons besides integration why the Warriors sent the fans. It took guts merely to play on that horribly rain-softened converted baseball diamond. But that was only the beginning. With the size and strength of pros and the spirit of amateurs, the teams put on a rock-'em, sock-'em grudge-battle all the way.

The Warriors slammed the brakes on a last-minute Louisville drive to win the game and thrill 6,000 fans. Probably another 2,000 or 3,000 would have attended if the Weather Man hadn't committed a vicious personal foul by throwing a rainstorm one hour before game time.

Tommy Fletcher, the dandy little halfback from Richmond and Purdue, had a hand in all the Warriors' points. On a picture play that covered 30 yards in the 1st quarter, quarterback Tom McDonald lateraled back to Tommy and Fletcher surprisingly passed to Buddy Allen in the end zone. Allen, a fast halfback from Utah State, also is a Negro.

Fletcher then kicked the PAT.

Allen Leaves Mayer Chapel

Al Allen's on the move again. The well known and energetic boxing coach resigned from Mayer Chapel Neighborhood Services by request—Saturday and said he is thinking of opening his own gym.

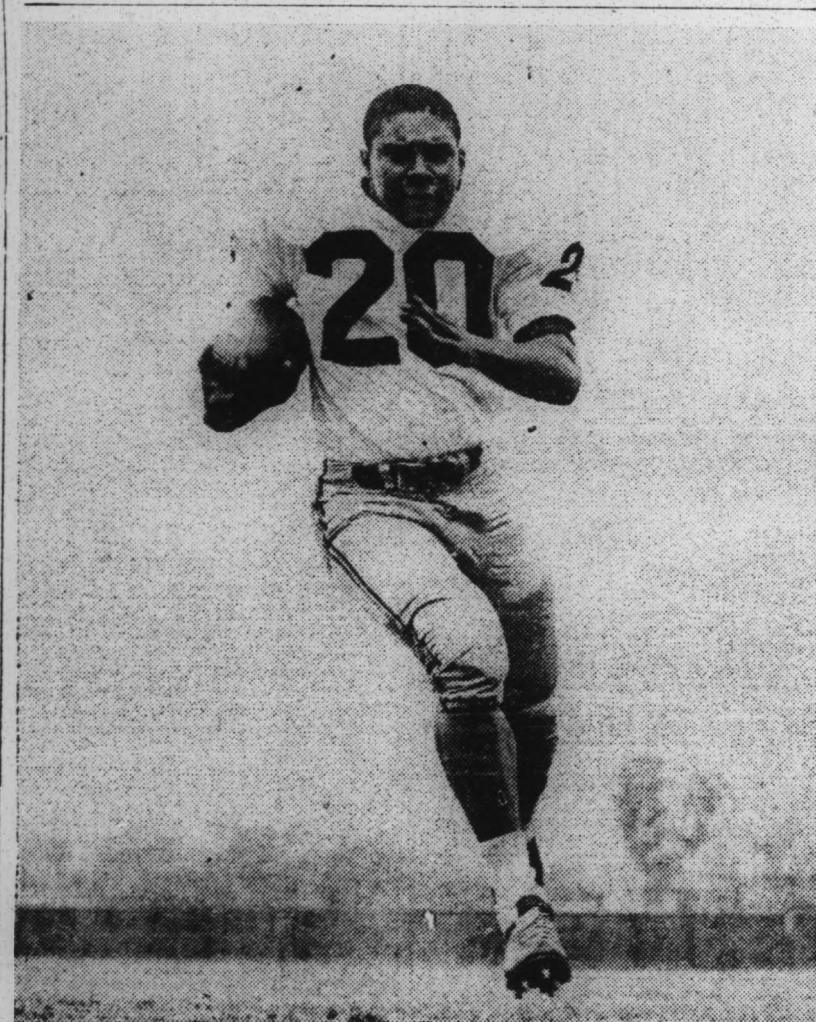

Hal Dudley, speaking for the Mayer Chapel board, said there are no hard feelings but indicated that Allen did not fit into the community center's over-all plans. He stressed that there was no race angle to the move and praised Al's work with boys of various ethnic groups.

MEANWHILE, THE PEPPERY little promoter (of various projects) will not be exactly idle. He is a matchmaker for the WTTV amateur boxing shows and coaches at the Indianapolis Athletic Club on Saturday mornings. In addition, he plans to rent out the portable boxing ring which he invented.

Allen has been at Mayer Chapel three years, during which time he says he has conducted more than 180 boxing shows. He was coach at St. Rita's before that, and was active for years in Louisville.

Lee, Kelso on Chicago Team in New Pro Net Loop

By CHARLES J. LIVINGSTON

CHICAGO (ANP) — Members of the Chicago Majors basketball team were in an optimistic mood as they left last week for St. John's Military Academy, Delafield, Wis., where they'll train for the American Basketball League's season opening Oct. 30.

Included in the 18-player squad were Herb Lee, 6-foot guard from South Bend Central and Indiana University; John Kelso, 6-4 from Ft. Wayne Central and Michigan State; Bob Wilkinson, 6-1 from Indiana, and Kelly Coleman, 6-3, former All-Star from Kentucky Wesleyan.

From Southern colleges had come Leroy Gibson, 6-3, of Florida A & M University; Jackie Fitzpatrick, 6-5, ex-Knoxville College and Harlem Globetrotters star, and Ken Peterson, 7-ft., Murray State Teachers.

Well-known tan players on the team included the veteran pro, Nat "Sweetwater" Clifton, formerly of Xavier University (La.), the Globe trotters, New York Knickerbockers and Detroit Pistons; Governor Vaughn, 6-4, from Illinois and the Globetrotters; and Frank Burks, 6-4, from Wisconsin and the Trotters. Also with the Majors were Sam Barnard, 6-6, Iowa State; Mike Feinstein, 6-1, Boston University; Tom Lewis, 6-4, Lake Forest; Joe Scott, 6-4, Missouri; Ron Sobieszczyk, 6-4, De Paul and the Knickerbockers; Rudy Stoehr, 6-7, Nebraska Wesleyan; John Wessels, 6-7, Illinois, and Ron Zagar, 5-11, Iowa.

ABE SAPERSTEIN, owner-coach of the Globetrotters, is also owner of the Majors, an Eastern Division entry in the new ABL. The other Eastern Division teams are the Pittsburgh Rens, Washington Caps and the Cleveland Pipers, coached by Johnny McLendon. Johnny, who last year guided the Pipers to the title in the National Industrial Basketball League, is the first Negro coach in professional basketball.

The Western Division of the league is set to open Oct. 13.

Washington Bridge Loop Admits Negroes

WASHINGTON, D.C. (ANP)—The long-segregated Washington Bridge League recently admitted its first Negro members.

When Victor R. Daly, assistant to the director of the United States Employment Service in the District, applied for membership five years ago, his application was rejected after a mail referendum. Last month another mail referendum favored admitting Negroes by better than 2 to 1.

"During the five years between the first ballot and the recent referendum, the concept of fair play and equal treatment for all Americans has spread to all corners," Daly said.

In addition to Daly, five other Negroes admitted to the club are District Commissioner John B. Duncan, who has spent 27 years gathering material for a book on bridge; Dr. Joseph Henry of Howard University's College of Dentistry; Carlisle Pratt, a former assistant corporation counsel; Mrs. Clyde Woolridge, retired government employee and one of the ranking players in the American Bridge Association, and James Lee, a social worker at the National Training School for Boys.

LAST WEEK AFTER a heated debate, the League's general membership voted to uphold the validity of the mail referendum. They barred dissenting segregationists from splitting the League, and thus getting a share of its treasury and control over tournaments.

Roaring Tigers Host Ben Davis

Attucks' roaring Tigers were favored to win their home game in a row in an afternoon tilt against Ben Davis scheduled for Friday, Oct. 6, at CYO Stadium.

The kickoff was set for 3:30 p.m. The Giants have won only one game in five this season, while the Tigers have lost only one in four—their first time out, 19-6 to mighty Cathedral.

Last week the high-scoring Tigers romped over Terre Haute Schulte, 32-0. William B. Taylor led the way with two touchdowns, on a 20-yard run and a 79-yard punt return.

Other Tiger TD's were tallied by Dave Bridgeforth, Allen Bridgeforth and Willie Thompson. Benjie Parker handled the quarterback chores well. PAT's were racked up by William Townsend and Dave Bridgeforth.

ATTUCKS' GREAT IMPROVEMENT this year is due to a good team spirit on the part of the players, a member of the coaching staff said. "They are hitting and tackling very hard, but they did that before," he observed. "To tell the truth, we have profited by losing a few big fellows who wouldn't accept discipline."

To Form Net Loop At Masonic Hall

A new industrial basketball league is being formed at the Masonic Temple, 653 N. West, it was announced this week.

League play will begin approximately Nov. 9 and continue from 12 to 16 weeks, followed by a playoff, sponsors said.

A meeting of coaches and managers desiring to enter the league will be held at the Temple on Saturday, Oct. 14, at 4 p.m.

Persons wanting further information can contact Jerry Kinsey or James Stanley at WA. 8-2986.

THERE'S BEEN A CHANGE

Yanks, Reds Lily-White In Series (Last Time They Met)

NEW YORK (ANP) — There wasn't a Negro player on either team as the New York Yankees and Cincinnati Reds met in the World Series.

But that was 22 years ago! In the pre-Jackie Robinson year of 1939, all of Organized Baseball was lily-white. The Yanks swept the Series that year in 4 games.

The Bronx Bombers are again heavy favorites at 11-5 odds (as of Monday), but otherwise how the picture has changed!

THE 1961 YANKEES carried their largest representation of Negro players into a World Series. Heading the contingent was Elston Howard, the hard-hitting catcher who wound up the season 2nd in the American League—with a .348 average to .361 for Norm Cash of the Detroit Tigers.

Howard was 3rd in the majors, as Pittsburgh's Roberto Clemente won the National League crown with a .351 mark. Next came the Reds' Vada Pinson, who finished strong for 343.

Besides Howard, the Yanks had Hector Lopez, utility outfielder, and Alphonse Downing, a rookie southpaw who was called up after midseason.

A fourth tan Yankee, catcher Jesse Gonder, started the season with the club but was optioned to Richmond. He was not recalled before Sept. 1, the deadline for Series eligibility.

FOR THE REDS, the tan big guns were Pinson and slugging outfielder Frank Robinson, who finished 6th in the National League standings at .323.

Guess Who's Next Foe for Machen?

LONDON, England (ANP)—Eddie Machen, No. 2-ranked heavyweight contender from Portland, Ore., and Brian London, former British heavyweight boxing champion, signed for a bout last week.

Machen's fistic stock rose recently after he gave Mike DeJohn of Syracuse, N.Y., a severe pounding before stopping him in the 9th round. On the basis of this showing, Ring Magazine moved Eddie up from the 3rd spot to 2nd, behind Sonny Liston.

London, who was massacred by Champion Floyd Patterson in a notorious mismatch in Indianapolis on May 1, 1959, is attempting a ring comeback.

No date was announced last week for the bout.

"WALK IN MY SHOES" . . . the documentary film on the plight of the Negro in America . . . his hopes and aspirations . . . Televised recently under the sponsorship of Bell & Howell Co. brought scads of protests from Southerners. Threats of boycott against the company which manufactures photographic equipment came from Louisiana.

STROHS BEER: . . . John A. Higdon, Negro representative for the Strohs Brewery in Detroit, is in town this week calling on local outlets in company with W. T. Steele of Todd & Barney, local Strohs distributors and distributor of Strohs fine beer. Mr. Higdon is a clean-cut young man, possessed of those qualities that mean so much to an enterprising salesman . . . a good conversationalist . . . and a man who enjoys meeting people.

He'll appreciate it very much if you ASK for STROHS when you visit your favorite tavern. Nuf sed!

SOME OF OUR FRIENDS (?) have gone so far as to say that we were paid for the things we said last week about the new Pink Poodle . . . Nothing could be further from the truth. In fact, we did not receive an invitation to the grand opening . . . nor have we received as much as a FREE bottle of beer from the Poodle owners . . . JAMES STEWART, right, battles Woody Strode, as a Comanche, in order to rescue Indian captive Linda Cristal. It's a scene from Columbia Pictures' new John Ford production, "Two Rode Together," which stars Stewart, Richard Widmark and Shirley Jones, and co-stars Miss Cristal, Andy Devine and John McIntire.

James Stewart In 'Two Rode Together' Starting Sunday at Walker Theater

Richard Widmark prefers to let his private life remain exactly that; he wants to be judged solely on his merits, which are considerable, as an actor. Currently, Widmark stars with James Stewart and Shirley Jones in John Ford's production of "Two Rode Together," a Columbia release in Eastman Color co-starring Linda Cristal, Andy Devine and John McIntire at the Walker Theatre, Sunday.

In "Two Rode Together," Widmark, fresh from his triumph in "The Alamo," plays an ambitious, if idealistic, U.S. Army lieutenant who joins with Stewart, a hard-bitten Texas marshal, leading an expedition against the Comanches in an effort to rescue a number of white captives.

In the 13 years Widmark has been a motion picture star, he has kept consistently busy; he cannot remember a time when he had more than a month between films. With the exception of one or two past contractual requirements, he has never starred in a film he has not approved of wholeheartedly; today he is in the happy position of doing only those pictures he wants to do. "Two Rode Together" was, for Widmark, a labor of love.

The screenplay for "Two Rode Together" was written by Frank Nugent, based on a novel by Will Cook. John Ford directed and Stan Shpetner produced the Columbia release, a John Ford production.

Dick Gregory Still Sharp After Full Season on Top

NEW YORK (ANP)—Comedian Dick Gregory's return to the Blue Angel night club here recently has been so successful that he quickly dispelled any and all speculation that he might have lost some of the magic which made him an overnight sensation.

The one-time car hop returned here with a full new repertoire of jokes, ranging from the problems of President Kennedy to the Berlin crisis, in keeping with his policy of making his jokes timely.

About the President and his problems, Gregory quipped: "What's Khrushchev going to do next?" and "What's Paar going to do next?" He referred to truck-driving German escapees from East Berlin as "Berlin Freedom Riders." Gregory also disproved the prediction of some critics who said he would run out of jokes unless he hires someone to write them. The fact is, Gregory has been increasing his arsenal of jokes daily.

A hard worker, Dick reportedly reads an average of 12 newspapers daily and makes scores of telephone calls to friends all over the nation inquiring, "What's new?" He writes about 30 jokes a day.

Little Macy at Oran's Supper Club in New Castle Sunday

Once in a while Hoosier "pleasure seekers" get a break. We have in mind an outstanding feature attraction coming to the Oran's Supper Club in New Castle Sunday, Oct. 8.

What is the attraction? None other than the dance clan's current idol, Little Macy and his band. And with Little Macy are the sensational "Valiants," featuring that petite little bombshell of song, Barbara Trent.

This is destined to be a night you'll never forget. Oran's Supper Club, located at 2263 Indiana Ave. in New Castle, has become Mid-Indiana's fastest growing pleasure spot, and a number of outstanding seasonal attractions are being booked at the club for your enjoyment and pleasure.

Sunday night's attraction will begin at 9 p.m. and last until 1 a.m. Admission is $1.50.

SPEAKING OF BASEBALL
Floyd Robinson is the 24-year-old Negro right fielder for the Chicago White Sox. (Some of the boys along the stem were in doubt about this.) And believe it or not he's being talked up for the Rookie of the Year in the American League, and according to A. L. President Joe Cronin, he's eligible. The fella ended the season hitting around .310 and is among the first ten top batters. The Sox brought him up on August 6, 1960 from San Diego. He's rated as the best rightfielder in the American League outside of Maris and Kaline, by White Sox General Manager Ed Short.

THE DODGERS bid farewell to Los Angeles Coliseum . . . They open the next year in "push" Chavez Ravine. Incidentally, the largest paid attendance in baseball history (The one for the boys at the Oriental) was the 93,103 persons who turned out for the Los Angeles Examiner's (newspaper) Roy Campanella tribute game with the New York Yankees, May 7, 1959. Here's another one of the books: There never was a game rained out in the Coliseum.

ACTRESS SIGNS FOR ROLE IN NEW MOVIE
HOLLYWOOD—Vivian Cervantes, recently seen in a segment of Warner Bros. "Surf-side 6" television series, has been cast in the Albert Zugsmith production of "Confessions of an Opium Eater" soon to go before the cameras at Allied Artists.
